

Inma Vila SolFire

London-based since 2001, Inma first got introduced to tattooing at the age of 16. A self-trained fine artist originally from Spain, she left the comforts of home early to learn and improve her craft.

Greatly inspired by world mythology and nature, Inma specializes in bold colourful subjects combined with meticulous fine line detail. She likes to work with traditional fundamentals that will make a tattoo stand the test of time, whilst placing the piece in a way that makes it flow and enhances the body where it lays.

Although tattooing has been her favoured medium for the past 25 years, making time to keep her illustration work going and to collaborate in projects with other fine artists has been key to keeping her creativity flowing. In recent years, her unique artworks have been featured in several books, as well as a number of collective exhibitions.

Still a keen traveller, when at home in the UK she can be found tattooing at renowned Red Point Tattoo in London and at MagicTattoo in Brighton as well as creating art at her home-based painting studio in Hove.
